

A Lot of Water

Problem

We build our lives around what we believe we cannot live without—our Iphone, our car, our comforts. Behind all these essentials is one key factor: water. That is what we truly cannot live without. Let's value it.

Idea

We interviewed people in NYC, asking them what they can't live without in their daily lives. Then, we revealed how much water it takes to produce those essentials. It's a wake-up call: there's a ton of water behind everything we love.
